

Sarah began working for HERS in June 2010 as a graduate assistant. In February 2011 she was promoted to her current position as program coordinator. Sarah now helps organize logistics for the HERS Institutes, as well as, facilitates communications between the office, participants, and alumnae. Prior to Sarah's work at HERS she interned with Engineers Without Borders -USA in the development department and served ten months as a corps member in the AmeriCorps National Civilian Community Corps.

In June 2011 Sarah will graduate from the Josef Korbel School of International Studies at the University of Denver with her MA in International Development. She is a 2008 alumna of St. John's University in Queens, New York where she graduated magna cum laude with a BA in Mathematics and Spanish.

Outside of work Sarah enjoys cooking, gardening, practicing yoga, and traveling. She also volunteers with several organizations in the Denver Metro area including RAAP and the Denver Rescue Mission.